I know that we had a super time!! Missed the out-Island but that does happen from time to time due to weather concerns. Other than that everything went swimmingly! Speaking of which there were no serious sunburns...glad everyone used their sunblock!! I personally want to thank all who attended this reunion. I recognize that the cost was more than usual but the reunion group in Pensacola 2006 voted to do a cruise and I appreciate those who supported that decision and came. It sure was hard getting back into the kitchen and cooking a meal!! The food on the ship was the best ever!! YUMMO!! Denise Bartuska

We both enjoyed the cruise and it was our first experience! The wonderful part was being with 16 classmates and not having to wash, cook, clean up or even make our beds!!! My body is shouting because I'm not eating 3 squares a day now and no desserts!!! I'm pleased to say that I only gained 2 pounds while on the cruise...Curves, here I come!!! I am looking forward to Arizona in 2010...maybe we should have another date in mind when all of us retire. That shouldn't be too much longer, should it? It would be absolutely astounding to have a fall in New England or the Smokies!!! Sorry that so many missed out on this cruise. It was great! Jane Kramer and Judy Ward

Denise, I don't know if any of us took the time to tell you how nice the Coral Gables Hyatt was. It was a great choice, beautiful and clean with very nice people working there. It was nice and quiet, being in the financial district on the week-ends. There were also some good restaurants within walking distance. All in all, a perfect choice. Carol Walsh

Debbye and I had a great time on the cruise. It was nice to see everyone and catch up. We are planning to have the reunion in Phoenix in 2010. Yes it is hot, and yes it is dry. But we can get 5 star hotel rooms here for about $129.00 per night. And all of the hotels have many pools and fantastic bars. So, if you stay in the pool and drink, there should be no problem. We can also plan a trip to Sedona. If you have not been there, you have really missed one of God's most beautiful creations. Debbye and I will be researching prices, and things to do in the near future. Rick and Debbye McKown

If you want to see "formal" class pictures (which I could not fit into the published newsletter) go to the Toul Forum Webpage, click on Summer 2008 Newsletter, and look at pages 9 - 16.

One of the planned events was to watch the movie: Brats - Our Journey Home. It was interesting, food for thought, well worth watching, and very relatable. A link is included on page 6 if you're interested. We also had a touching memorial service for our deceased classmates.

Sue Crowley has expressed a desire to stop keeping the treasury and the directory. So that job has now been passed onto Denise Bartuska Stone and Jane Kramer Nelson. Thanks everyone for a job well done.

Here's the July 1, 2008 Treasury Report from Denise:

ITEM	INCOME	EXPENSES
Balance from pervious treasurer:	$823.29
Donations made on Cruise:	$20.00
TOTAL	$843.29

We welcome donations. Please send them to Denise.
